Re: Mendoza, Jesus
Docket No.: 2:12CR06053-014
Request for Modification of Conditions

Your Honor:

On October 4, 2012, the defendant made his initial appearance before Your Honor. Mr. Mendoza had a detention hearing on October 12, 2012, before the Honorable Cynthia Imbrogno, U.S. Magistrate Judge, via video conference, in Yakima, Washington. The government's motion for detention was granted; with the option to review the request for release after the defendant completed mental health and chemical dependency assessments.

Mr. Mendoza completed a chemical dependency assessment on October 25, 2012. The recommendation was he complete an alcohol/drug information school. He also completed a mental health evaluation on December 7, 2012. The recommendation was for weekly counseling to better manage his anxiety and depression.

On January 30, 2013, Mr. Mendoza was granted release and placed on pretrial supervision with U.S. Probation. The defendant has been compliant with his release conditions. He has reported as required, his drug tests have been negative, and he has been complying with treatment and counseling.

The issue at hand is the defendant's current residence. Pretrial release condition #11 of the defendant's release order, ECF 553, required the defendant reside with his uncle, Antonio Mendoza, who lives at

At the time of the defendant's release, living at the residence was his uncle, aunt, and cousin. Mr. Mendoza contacted this officer advising that his uncle's other daughter, Brenda, moved back into the residence. Her husband, Manuel, was detained by immigration authorities and taken to a detention center in Seattle, Washington. He was released on bond and moved in with the defendant's uncle that same week. Because there are now two additional people living at the residence, the apartment is cramped. The defendant requested he be allowed to move in with his aunt, Maria Mendoza. She lives in the same apartment complex next door to his uncle at

This officer conducted a home visit and met with the defendant and his aunt, Maria Mendoza. She shares the apartment with her brother, Rafael Mendoza, and there are no firearms at the residence. Ms. Mendoza was advised of the defendant's pretrial release conditions and she agreed to allow the defendant to reside with her.

The above information is being provided to the Court for consideration to modify the defendant's conditions of release and allow him to live with his aunt, Maria Mendoza, due to the living situation at his uncle's apartment.

Enclosed is a Consent to Modify Conditions of Release signed by the defendant, his attorney, and this officer. Should Your Honor have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at 509-943-8133.

Respectfully submitted,
